IN MEMORY

Perhaps it would be well to look back at other days.

Do remember that every day is a new day.

We now miss in many ways.

Many patrons who did the work.

Now have been called home.

They threw the torch along to us.

And we must not falter or tire.

They built the hall for our use.

And gave freely of their money.

It helped educate the young.

And made our lives a bit more sunny.

We've met their smiling faces here.

Perhaps it was hard to come.

But it brightened up a stormy day.

Listening to the songs they sung.

We gained from mingling with them.

As night after night we met.

A kindly word and pleasant smile.

They're treasures we have kept.

So we are thankful here tonight.

For the thanks that we bestow.

And let's remember that we are still some.

Go God and some other patron.

Chaplain of Crooked River Lodge.

BRIDGTON HIGHLANDS

Mrs. Meta Steinkamp of New York City, who is staying at the Ridgeway for a period of time, moved from Germany to this country thirty-three years ago, bringing her family of children.

At the first call to arms of this country her sons, Charlie and Eddie, enlisted, "because the United States is our home and here we can live better." Both made the supreme sacrifice and are still some where in France. Mrs. Steinkamp was a most active worker for the Red Cross during the war and now neither time nor money spares her to contribute to the comfort of disabled soldiers in the various hospitals around New York. Her usual Christmas donation is four hundred pounds of candy, many cartons of cigarettes and necessities such as socks and handkerchiefs. The visit of Mrs. Steinkamp is heralded with joy by these poor unfortunate who are awaiting joyful death. One of the most active posts in New York called this Steinkamp Bros. Post of Veterans of the World War, No. 853, was named for these two young heroes, who so willingly gave their lives for their adopted country. Mrs. Steinkamp's daughter, Mrs. Marie Smith, is National Chapter of V. W. National Home in Michigan. Nowhere can truer patriotism to the United States be found than in this little family from Germany. Charles Robinson is visiting Portland for the purpose of celebrating the fifth birthday of Unity Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which he is a charter member. But one other is living and he also hopes to be present.

The Busy Bee Club met with Mrs. James Fitzpatrick and the usual good refreshments were served and enjoyed by all present.

Horace Flint was thrown out of his sleigh Monday morning and buried under a foot of snow; his horse realizing something was wrong, stopped, thereby giving Horace a chance to get out of the sleigh and escape on his way to school. You can't keep a good man down.

Lee Flint, who is in Portland at present, writes that conditions are much worse financially than we in Bridgton realize, his business bringing him in contact with hundreds of families and every home he has visited so far, he has found some member of the family unemployed.

After three months experimenting Arthur Flint has made a recipe which he says cannot be beaten for a cake known as Flint's angel sponge.

Miss Blanche Morrison and young Richard Porter are ill with the flu.

A scientist says there will be nothing but standing room in the world in 3000. That'll make it very hard on those who fallen asleep.

Oxford County United Parish

The Oxford County United Parish will hold its seventh annual winter carnival under the auspices of Crooked River Outing Club at North Waterford on Saturday, Feb. 13. Events are to begin at 10:00 a. m. and will continue through the day and end at 7:30 p. m.

The king and queen of the carnival will be crowned and cups and prizes will be awarded. Five cups will be awarded as follows: The king's cup to the boy who wins the most points in carnival competition. The parish cup to the boy from the parish who wins the greatest number of points. The Sunday school cup to the Sunday school pupil from the parish who wins the most points. The Payson cup to the high school or academy winning the highest number of points. The grammar school cup to the grammar school in the parish who wins the greatest number of points.

Last year both the Sunday school cup and the Payson cup were won by the same party for the third successive year. The Sunday school cup went into the permanent possession of Miss Mary Howe of North Waterford, and the Payson cup went to South Paris high school. This year two new cups have been bought and it is expected that they will stimulate more keen competition.

The queen is the girl from the parish who receives the highest total score of points in competition and popularity votes. The candidates, thus far, for carnival queen, are Pauline Kendall, North Waterford, and Nora McAllister of North Waterford. Following the crowning of the king and queen and the awarding of cups and prizes, the Crooked River Outing Club will present the play, "Plain People".

NORTH BRIDGTON

The ladies of the Church Circle gave a baked bean dinner at the vestry, Feb. 10.

Winnie Curtis received painful injuries when she slipped and fell on the icy-walk near her home. Mrs. Helen Carpenter is assisting Mrs. Curtis with her household duties. Mrs. Curtis is recovering from the measles. Myron Briggs of Harrison was a dinner guest at Mr. and Mrs. Perley Howard's.

Ruth I. Moulton of Bridgton, grammar school teacher here, has been absent from her duties here for two weeks, on account of illness. Miss I. Moulton is now teaching in Mrs. Moulton's absence.

On account of so much sickness, the schools have been broken up a great deal. Those absent from the past week are: Alice and Grace Howard, Rachel Morrison, Priscilla Chabourne, Arthur Howard, Eleanor Howard, Barbara Howard, George and Richard Chabourne, Warren Martin, Lillian Sampson, Malvin Bartlett, Richard George and Vedell and Raymond, Donald and Doris Holden. Miss Mildred Holden has the measles. Alice Crockett has been home from Portland helping care for her mother, who has been ill.

Mrs. Molly Bowley and Mrs. Frank Allen went to Harrison one day last week, calling on Mrs. Harry Allen. Miss Winnifred Smart of Sydney was through here with her dress samples, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woods entertained Mr. Lundgren of the "Arcade" as dinner guests, recent. James Chabourne and Lewis Merrill are sick.

Charles Allen remains in poor health. Their daughter, Mrs. Lathrop, and family, of Otisfield, were Sunday guests at Mr. Allen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ilean Smart are visiting her mother, Mrs. Georgia Allen, for a while.

Louis Bowley is able to work again after his accident of a few weeks ago. He, with his son, is working in the woods at Sweden.

Mrs. Curtis Adams is in a Portland hospital, where she underwent surgery. Mrs. Frank Allen is boarding a small child from Biddeford.

What About Taxes?

A Few Comparisons and Suggestions

This is a time when we must see that every dollar we spend in taxes shall bring one hundred cents in value and save as many of them as possible.

But the schools are another matter, here we can save a penny! Let us consider how we may reduce expenses, keeping in mind the one great reason for their existence, our boys and girls.

Thus you see the school tax in those good old days was small and so was the road tax for the farmer or the old farmer who had to travel far to the store.

There are many reasons why the man in the street who is not a taxpayer should not be so much interested in the school tax as the taxpayer.

The entire supply account can be saved in the taxes that are paid. The man who is not a taxpayer should not be so much interested in the school tax as the taxpayer.

FRYEBURG

The senior group of the Girl Reserves held an interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Harold G. Booth, of the Congregational parsonage.

Pangus Grange held a successful card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Haley on Wednesday evening. Twelve tables were in play, bridge, whist and "83" being played.

The regular meeting of Pythagorean Chapter No. 169 of E. S. was held on Thursday evening at Masonic Hall, with the newly installed officers in the chairs.

There has been an epidemic of colds and influenza about town. Last week, there were thirty-eight absent from the Academy on Thursday and Friday.

Little Everett Stevens has been ill with the flu. The death of David Bell occurred Saturday, Jan. 23, at Fryeburg, following a period of ill health.

He was born in New Aunan, Nova Scotia, June 7, 1853, the son of Robert and Nancy Bell, coming to Fryeburg when he was nineteen years of age.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Rosabel Kenison, whom he married June 17, 1882, four sons, Leo, Earl, Irving and Merton, who acted as bearers, and two daughters, Mrs. William and Ruth Bell, also twelve grandchildren.

C. says he wishes the finder (if said has been found) would return same to him or call for the one he has, so someone could have a pair of gloves.

Our life long friend, Judge A. E. Herrick of Bethel has passed to the unknown beyond. The passing brings to mind the just tribute paid him during his life by Judge Morrill:

"Judge Herrick is one of the ablest lawyers in Maine. Lacking, perhaps, that cringing eloquence that moves juries to laughter or to tears, his profound knowledge of the law is so well recognized that his rulings on contested legal points are sought by attorneys all over New England. If he would work as successfully for himself as he does for others he would win fame and a fortune."

E. W. Howe, Atholton, Kan., editor, says:

"No man sincerely believes honesty is the best policy who has not been whipped for dishonesty. All honesty is established by practical discovery that it is finally more profitable and agreeable than dishonesty. All wisdom is established by ventures into folly, as health rules are established by suffering from ill health. How did you learn to properly spell words? By spelling them wrong, of course, and being laughed at. When you were born you didn't know anything. What have you learned from experience? What you learn hereafter will come in the same way."

The old man of the shop had a birthday, Feb. 10, and was remembered by a once young and gay stenographer:

"Happy birthday!"
It is an interesting coincidence that my first employer, a lawyer, was born February 11th. My second—yep—February 10th. My third, an editor, too, on February 10th. My own birthday is February 9th.

Now that I've lost the position I held for many years, all I have to do is pick out someone born the 10th or 11th of February and move in with my note book and eraser.

Camp Fire Gathering

Patriotic Orders Enjoy Evening Together

A very happy gathering of the past week's Camp Fire of Pythian Hall, which brought together approximately 120 people, with the members of Joshua L. Chamberlain Camp, Sons of Veterans and its Auxiliary, Eliza Ann Veterans and its Auxiliary, and the G. A. R. and Ladies of the G. A. R. Circle, and the former Women's Relief Association, gathered at the Pythian Hall for a very happy gathering.

War veterans were able to attend, George Seavey of Norway and William Plummer of South Paris.

A fine supper was served with Mrs. Emma Swan as chairman of the committee. The tables were very attractive, the only decorations being flags in the standard.

During the supper hour, an orchestra of four pieces played selections. Miss Rutha Sharon, Edwin Barker, Harlan Holman and Ralph Dunham made up the orchestra. The program which followed was arranged by Mrs. Aris Huff, Mrs. George Buck, Mrs. Mary Kimball, Mrs. Addie Lovejoy. Selection by the orchestra; address of welcome by Mrs. Mearle M. Brown, president of the Daughters; prayer, Rev. E. B. Tuley, South Paris; response by the orchestra; singing, two old time songs by a chorus, who wore old time bonnets and paisley shawls, then the men all sang hats and out-ways.

Remarks by Dr. Charles L. Buck, commander of the Maine Department, Sons of United Veterans, who introduced the speaker of the evening, the Rev. W. W. Lyon, of the Norway Methodist church, who is well informed on Civil War history, and as he spoke of some incidents, he was interrupted several times by the two old comrades, as they recalled some of the battles mentioned. Little Miss Martha Hosmer gave a fine vocal solo, followed by a piano selection; Mrs. Esther Towser Anderson gave the humorous character sketch, "The Ball of Carrot Corner", by special request, and as always called forth laughter and applause.

For an encore she gave a humorous remark, "The Misses Margaret, Michie and Frances McAllister sang, 'Washington'." Elton Brown followed with a black face skit and song and for an encore sang "When Your Hair has Turned to Silver."

The chorus gave two old time songs, followed by an orchestral selection. The closing number was a patriotic tableau arranged by Mrs. Huff. Miss Mildred Huff as "Columbia", was surrounded by the Red, white and blue, with Mrs. Maybelle Bell, Mrs. Etta Jacobs, Mrs. Clara Jordan, as the Red, Mrs. Edna Corey, Mrs. Mearle M. Brown, Mrs. Eva Abbott as the Blue and Miss Frances McAllister, Mrs. Fannie Monk and Miss Elizabeth Noyes as the stars of a triangle.

A male quartet composed of Elton L. Brown, Oniel Brown, Clyde Corey and Ernest Moores sang patriotic songs were representatives of the different war and patriotic organizations took their places. These included Frank Lovejoy as the Revolutionary patriot; Neil Brown as the 1812 soldier; William Plummer, the Civil War soldier; James Harvey, the Spanish War soldier; Mrs. Mary Kimball, the Red Cross; Mrs. Etta Jacobs, the Salvation Army; Alfred Monk, the World War; Mrs. Sadie Layman, the Gold Star Mother. Taps were played by Master Carlton Dyer, small son of Alfred J. Dyer, World War Veteran. At the close, the Stars and Stripes Banner. The tableau was very beautiful and well carried out.

A social hour followed and the orchestra furnished music for those who cared to dance.

Chester W. Thurston is a candidate for selectman and George E. Emerson a candidate for road commissioner in the Norway Village Corporation. See their announcements in this issue.

Joseph Y. Keaz, 93, of Colebrook, N. H., well known in Norway, passed away at his home early Thursday morning, February 11. His daughter, Mrs. W. H. C. Leavitt, had been with him several days and Mr. Leavitt started for Colebrook Thursday forenoon. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon.

4-H ENROLLMENT GROWS
Maine now has 1,127 4-H Club members enrolled, which is one-half of last year's total membership and it also is twice as many as enrolled at a similar date last year, according to Lester H. Shibles, state club leader, who has summarized reports from each county.

Practically every county has doubled their membership over last year, while others have done even better.

Taxes on real estate might not be so bad after all if there were not so many other things coming up to tax our patience also.

Chicks Hatching—Winter Sports—"Patricia" Coming

Arthur Cummings has hatched 875 chicks, part Rhode Island Reds and part Plymouth Rocks. These birds are to be grown for broilers. They are to be shipped to Boston or to New York.

Four hundred and fifty chicks were removed from the school incubator on Wednesday. This week's hatchings are of Rhode Island Reds and Rhode Island Reds.

After next week a hatch is expected every week until March 30. The total number of marketable chicks hatched up to date from this department is 2,230.

The Future Farmers Chapter will have a debate at its meeting, Friday morning. The subject to be discussed is advantages and disadvantages of hoteliers vs. Jersays. The members of the debating team will be Theodore Howe and A. Cummings on the Holstein side, and Harry Andrew and Stanley Batchelder for the Jersey side.

The winter sports team will go to Waterville, Saturday, to partake in the meet there and then on Saturday the team will also go to Rumford to partake in the state meet.
